

FLORIDA-GEORGIA JAMES ROGERS MEMORIAL OCEAN CHALLENGE RACE
Saturday, October 22, 2011

The Amelia Island Sailing Club is pleased to announce the Annual Florida-Georgia Ocean Challenge Race from St. Simon's Island, Ga., to Amelia Island, Fla., on Saturday, October 22, 2011.

We will race off-shore from the St. Simon's channel to a finish line near or west of the St. Marys channel entrance (approximately 25miles). The race will be open to properly outfitted monohulls with adequate life-saving equipment for all persons aboard including USCG approved personal flotation devices. PHRF ratings will be handled as in the past races between the two clubs. Registration and check-in will be available on Friday, October 21, 2011 from 6:00pm until 7:30pm at the Golden Isles Marina deck area. The skipper's meeting will start at 6:30pm. The race will start on Saturday at 09:30am and will end at the place designated during the skipper's meeting. The post-race awards will be presented in Fernandina Beach at approximately 6:30pm. The awards social location will be announced.

Registration is $25.00 per boat. Shirts will be $17.00 and $19.00 2x and 3x. The shirts must be reserved in advance with your registration form. Advance registration is required to facilitate shirt orders and social functions. You may register and enter the race Friday evening before the race but shirts may not be available. Sailing instructions and shirts may be picked up on Friday evening at the skipper's meeting..

Reservations must be made well in advance at the Golden Isles Marina for Friday night.
