

After a difficult decision it has been decided to have this year's mug race canceled. The safety and well-being of all the sailors, support committees, volunteers and the general public this was the best decision. We hope to see you all for next years mug race!

Please feel free to submit anything you would like for us to publish on our weekly news to the office email at office@rudderclub.com

Please visit www.rudderclub.com and stay connected